PRESS RELEASE

5x World Champion Gamer Stephanie Harvey announced as an Official Cybersmile Gaming Ambassador

PALO ALTO, CALIFORNIA, MARCH 7, 2015 - The Cybersmile Foundation have announced that 5x world champion gamer Stephanie Harvey has come onboard as an Official Gaming Ambassador.

Stephanie Harvey is a Canadian video games developer and is best known as one of the world's preeminent Counter-Strike and Counter-Strike: Global Offensive (CS:GO) players, having won five world championships.

Harvey's tech knowledge and experience working in the gaming industry with companies including Ubisoft and developing titles such as the popular Far Cry game gives her a unique perspective into current and emerging trends.

As part of Cybersmile's new partnership with Intel, Stephanie will be supporting gamers by providing valuable insights and advice that will be made available online through new resources on the Cybersmile website.

"We are thrilled to welcome Stephanie as our Official Gaming Ambassador. Her experience in the industry as a developer and as a player will provide us with valuable perspectives that will enhance our work in providing support to gamers around the world," - Dan Raisbeck, Co-Founder, The Cybersmile Foundation.

Stephanie Harvey will also participate in various initiatives with Cybersmile to engage gamers and support a more positive and inclusive gaming environment for all.
